WORDS OF GREETING

*Ilse Aigner
President of the Bavarian
State Parliament*

What would our lives be without music? Music touches our hearts. Music connects – old and young, across national borders.

I think: There is nothing our time can use better than the reconciling, integrative power of music. It is therefore an honour and a great pleasure for me to be the patron of the 45th International Choir Festival Pueri Cantores in Munich.

Children's and youth choirs from around 20 countries come together in the Bavarian capital. They sing and make music together. But intercultural exchange, getting to know each other and international understanding are also at the centre of this choir festival.

I would like to thank the organisers, sponsors and everyone who has helped to make this choir festival possible. In particular, I would like to thank the choirs and choir-masters as well as the Association for the Organisation of the International Children's and Youth Choir Festival of Pueri Cantores 2025 in Munich e. V. for their impressive commitment.

With this in mind, I wish you and all of us an unforgettable choir festival! Let us be carried away – by the joy of singing together, by the unique atmosphere of this international music festival. And let us be infected by the idea that we can all make a small contribution to a more peaceful world!

*Cardinal Reinhard Marx
Archbishop of Munich and Freising*

Dear Pueri Cantores!

As Archbishop of Munich and Freising, it is a pleasure for me to welcome you here in the heart of Bavaria. The power of music has brought you together here to let your voices resound, to experience community, to celebrate faith and to stand up for peace.

Cantate Domino: You have already met countless times to sing to the praise of God in church services, concerts and rehearsals. You have also prepared intensively for the days in Munich. Through music, you succeed more than any words could express in bringing the joys and sorrows, the petitions and thanks of the people before God.

Come and sing: It is a strong and hopeful sign for the church that so many young singers from all over the world have made their way to Munich. In the music and the experiences of these days, our languages come together to form a unity, a common sound.

Many voices for peace: Especially in these times, your commitment to peace, which has always been a concern of Pueri Cantores, is an important sign for society. Your testimony gives us strength and courage for the future.

I wish you blessed days full of impressive encounters! A warm welcome to Munich!

With warm greetings in Christ,

A handwritten signature in black ink, which appears to read 'Reinhard Marx'.

*Prof. Stephan Zippe
Diocesan Director of Music in the Archdiocese of Munich and Freising*

Dear children and young people, dear participants, it is my great pleasure to welcome you all on behalf of the organisers to the Choir Festival 2025 in Munich!

We are thrilled by the overwhelming response and look forward to hearing many young voices fill Munich in the coming days. I especially want to thank you for your efforts in travelling here, for your intensive musical preparation, and for the significant personal financial contribution – your dedication and enthusiasm are truly inspiring.

My heartfelt thanks also go to the hundreds of volunteers whose tireless efforts make this special event possible. Without their commitment, we could not celebrate this festival of music and community together. Additionally, I would like to thank the foundations, sponsors, and supporters whose contributions provide the financial foundation for this extraordinary gathering.

For the festival, a comprehensive choir book has been prepared, featuring both traditional songs and many new compositions. Once again, Pueri Cantores makes an important contribution to contemporary church music.

I wish everyone an inspiring time filled with joy, music, and community!

Warm regards,

Prof. Stephan Zippe

SONG OF THE BAVARIANS (BAYERNHYMNEN)

---

Gott mit dir, du Land der Bayern, Heimerde, Vaterland!
Über deinen weiten Gauen walte seine Segenshand!
Er behüte deine Fluren, schirme deiner Städte Bau und erhalte dir die Farben seines Himmels, Weiß und Blau!

Gott mit dir, dem Bayernvolke, dass wir, unsrer Väter wert, stets in Eintracht und in Frieden bauen unsres Glückes Herd!
Dass vom Alpenland zum Maine jeder Stamm sich fest vertrau und die Herzen freudig eine unser Banner, Weiß und Blau!

Gott mit uns und Gott mit allen, die der Menschen heilig Recht treu beschützen und bewahren von Geschlechte zu Geschlecht.
Frohe Arbeit, frohes Feiern, reiche Ernten jedem Gau!
Gott mit dir, du Land der Bayern unterm Himmel, Weiß und Blau!

T: Joseph Maria Lutz (1893-1972)

EVENING SONG

---

1. The day thou gavest, Lord, is ended;
The darkness falls at Thy behest;
To Thee our morning hymns ascended,
Thy praise shall hallow now our rest.
2. We thank Thee that Thy church unsleeping,
While earth rolls onward into light,
Through all the world her watch is keeping,
And rests not now by day or night.
3. As o'er each continent and island
The dawn leads on another day,
The voice of prayer is never silent,
Nor dies the strain of praise away.
4. The sun that bids us rest is waking
Our brethren 'neath the western sky,
And hour by hour fresh lips are making
Thy wondrous doings heard on high.
5. So be it, Lord! Thy throne shall never,
Like earth's proud empires, pass away;
Thy kingdom stands, and grows for ever,
Till all Thy creatures own Thy sway.

T: John Ellerton (1826-1893)

SINGING OF GOD'S PEACE

---

When Abbé Fernand Maillet (1896-1963) gave the impetus to found the International Federation of Pueri Cantores after the Second World War, he was inspired by a vision: "Tomorrow all the children of the world will sing the peace of God".

He passed this vision on to the Pueri Cantores. That is why singing about God's promise of peace and praying for peace in the world is always part of the program when Pueri Cantores gather for a large choir meeting: Sometimes in a large prayer for peace with all the choirs together, as in 2022 in Piazza della Signoria in Florence, or – as in Cologne in 2004 and now again in Munich – on several days and at different times in the cathedral. It has never been as necessary as it is today.

*Dr. Marius
Linnenborn,
Spiritual Assistant,
Pueri Cantores Germany*

COOPERATION WITH THE INTERNATIONAL FEDERATION FOR CHORAL MUSIC (IFCM)

IFCM's YOUNG programme aims to nurture the next generation of choral conductors by providing opportunities for learning, development and meaningful contributions to the choral community.

The programme is aimed at young choral conductors, composers, singers and administrators between the ages of 18 and 35 who wish to develop their knowledge and skills in choral music and choral conducting.

YOUNG offers workshops led by experienced professionals and educators, as well as unique on-the-job training. The programme is linked to major choral events and offers young choral and cultural managers the opportunity to further their education.

YOUNG supports and inspires young choral leaders and provides them with a platform to showcase their skills and creativity. Participants make connections and work together by building a network of peers and mentors.

We are happy to have eight young people enriching our festival team in Munich thanks to the cooperation with IFCM!
